Come and show your support on 3 and 4 August

Kingston, Merton & Wandsworth – get ready for the world’s greatest festival of cycling

Expect delays as some roads and bridges will be affected.

Check your travel. Search TfL RideLondon travel.
Prudential RideLondon, the world’s greatest festival of cycling featuring the world’s top riders and fun for all the family, returns for its seventh year to London and Surrey over the first weekend of August 2019.

More than 100,000 cyclists will participate in seven events taking place in central London on Saturday 3 August and in London and Surrey on Sunday 4 August.

Prudential RideLondon was developed by the Mayor of London, Transport for London and London & Partners in partnership with Surrey County Council and is sponsored by Prudential.

It is Europe’s most successful cycling fundraising event and riders have raised more than £66 million for charity since the event was first staged in 2013. The event is managed by the London & Surrey Cycling Partnership with live coverage on BBC and worldwide.

This booklet contains important information to help you plan your travel around Kingston, Merton and Wandsworth on Sunday 4 August.

Events on Sunday 4 August

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100
  25,000 amateur cyclists will take on a 100-mile cycle challenge through the closed roads of London and Surrey, starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park before finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46
  A 46-mile ride for 5,000 amateur cyclists within the existing 100-mile challenge created specifically for newer and younger riders, also starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 19
  The 19-mile ride starts at Sandown Park and finishes on The Mall. The event is specifically for families and young people. Children aged 12 – 16 years old are able to take part if they are accompanied by an adult and have completed the Level 2 Bikeability training programme or are a member of a British Cycling club.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey Classic
  The first British men’s race ever to attain UCI WorldTour status and featuring the best teams in the world. The race starts at Bushy Park before heading into Surrey and returning to the capital to finish on The Mall.

The event routes through Kingston, Merton and Wandsworth are on pages 6-11.

Other Prudential RideLondon events

On Saturday 3 August, the Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle, Classique (as part of the UCI Women’s WorldTour), and Brompton World Championship events take place in central London only (City of London and City of Westminster).

These events are free to attend, include interactive Festival Zones, and provide exciting days out for all the family. For more information about the Prudential RideLondon festival weekend, visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk

Road closures

On Sunday 4 August, there will be an impact on traffic in large parts of London and across Surrey. Roads used by the event will be closed so you’ll need to plan your travel in advance.

Local information

The A3 will be open, although the exit slips at Esher Common, Coombe Lane and Tibbet’s Corner will be closed. Roads adjoining the event routes will have local access only for residents and businesses, with usual parking restrictions unless otherwise stated. See maps on page 6-11.

There will be significant delays to road journeys. Avoid driving in the affected areas unless absolutely necessary. If you have to drive, plan ahead, consider re-timing your journey and allow more time to complete your journey. To get around more quickly, use Tube and rail or consider walking for shorter journeys.

Richmond Park will be closed to vehicles during the event day until 07:00 on Monday 5 August.

Where to watch

As the only town to host the cyclists on both their outbound and inbound legs, Kingston is the best place to watch and cheer on the riders. For more information, visit inkingston.co.uk

The Love Wimbledon street party celebrates its seventh year with great food, music and children’s activities to complement the fantastic views of the cyclists. For more information, visit lovewimbledon.org

Emergencies will be treated as a priority in the usual way. If you require the emergency services, call 999. Emergency vehicle access will be maintained and prioritised throughout all of the Prudential RideLondon events.

There will be stewards and volunteers positioned along the route. If you require assistance on the day that is not a 999 emergency please ask event staff to help. Alternatively, contact the Customer Services team on 0345 894 9773.

Pedestrian crossing points are located along the event route. These will be under supervision to help pedestrians cross the road. Usual crossings may be suspended, but an alternative will be signposted where it will be easier to cross. Please be patient during the event and listen to instructions given by stewards.
