Event information for west London

Prudential RideLondon, the world’s greatest festival of cycling featuring the world’s top riders and fun for all the family, returns for its seventh year to London and Surrey over the first weekend of August 2019.

More than 100,000 cyclists will participate in seven events taking place in central London on Saturday 3 August and in London and Surrey on Sunday 4 August.

Prudential RideLondon was developed by the Mayor of London, Transport for London and London & Partners in partnership with Surrey County Council and is sponsored by Prudential.

It is Europe’s most successful cycling fundraising event and riders have raised more than £66 million for charity since the event was first staged in 2013.

The event is managed by the London & Surrey Cycling Partnership with live coverage on BBC and worldwide.

This booklet contains important information to help you plan your travel around west London on Saturday 3 and Sunday 4 August.
• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100
  25,000 amateur cyclists will take on a 100-mile cycle challenge through the closed roads of London and Surrey, starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park before finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46
  A 46-mile ride for 5,000 amateur cyclists within the existing 100-mile challenge created specifically for newer and younger riders, also starting at Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park and finishing on The Mall.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 19
  The 19-mile ride starts at Sandown Park and finishes on The Mall. The event is specifically for families and young people. Children aged 12 – 16 years old are able to take part if they are accompanied by an adult and have completed the Level 2 Bikeability training programme or are a member of a British Cycling club.

• Prudential RideLondon-Surrey Classic
  The first British men’s race ever to attain UCI WorldTour status and featuring the best teams in the world. The race starts at Bushy Park before heading into Surrey and returning to the capital to finish on The Mall.

The event routes through west London are on pages 7-11.

Other Prudential RideLondon events

On Saturday 3 August, the Prudential RideLondon FreeCycle, Classique (as part of the UCI Women’s WorldTour), and Brompton World Championship events take place in central London only (City of London and City of Westminster).

These events are free to attend, include interactive Festival Zones, and provide exciting days out for all the family. For more information about the Prudential RideLondon festival weekend, visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk
Road closures on Sunday 4 August

On Sunday 4 August, there will be an impact on traffic in large parts of London and across Surrey. Roads used by the event will be closed so you’ll need to plan your travel in advance.

Cyclists in the Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 100 and 46 will pass through west London on the outbound route, from Hyde Park Corner to Chiswick Bridge, and again on the inbound journey towards the finish, crossing Putney Bridge and travelling along Chelsea Embankment.

Local information

The A4 eastbound between Hogarth Roundabout and Warwick Road at Earls Court remains open throughout the day.

Roads adjoining the event routes will have local access only for residents and businesses, with usual Sunday parking restrictions unless otherwise stated. See maps on page 7-11.

There will be significant delays to road journeys. Avoid driving in the affected areas unless absolutely necessary. If you have to drive, plan ahead, consider re-timing your journey and allow more time to complete your journey.

To get around more quickly, use Tube and rail or consider walking for shorter journeys. For assistance with journey planning, visit PrudentialRideLondon.co.uk/road-closures

Local information

Parking

If you usually park on a road used for the event, please move your vehicle the night before. Vehicles cannot be parked on the event route from 00:01 on Sunday 4 August. Any vehicle left on the route or parked in a suspended parking bay will be removed from the route.

Emergency services

Emergencies will be treated as a priority in the usual way. If you require the emergency services, call 999. Emergency vehicle access will be maintained and prioritised throughout all of the Prudential RideLondon events.

Public transport

There will be some planned engineering works taking place on the Transport for London network on the event weekend.

Due to event road closures, some bus services will need to be diverted temporarily, suspended or will terminate earlier than usual. Some stops may also be temporarily relocated.

For real time travel information and the TfL journey planner, check tfl.gov.uk

On the day

There will be stewards and volunteers positioned along the route. If you require assistance on the day that is not a 999 emergency please ask event staff to help. Alternatively, contact the Customer Services team on 0345 894 9773.

Pedestrian crossing points

Pedestrian crossing points are located along the event route. These will be under supervision to help pedestrians cross the road. Usual crossings may be suspended, but an alternative will be signposted where it will be easier to cross. Please be patient during the event and listen to instructions given by stewards.
